RAYMOND ACKERMAN ACADEMY OF ENTREPRENEURIAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME (RAA-ED)

The Raymond Ackerman Academy of Entrepreneurial Development (RAA-ED) is inviting applications from young individuals residing in South Africa and SADC countries (Southern African Development Community).

RAA-ED offers a national online program, complemented by practical workshops that enable participants to apply their knowledge in early-stage businesses. After completing the six-month program, participants will have the option to enrol in a one-year mentoring program.

The goal of this program is to equip students with essential skills to enhance their entrepreneurial abilities, leading to improved employment opportunities or the establishment of viable business ventures.

Qualification Equivalent: NQF Level 4

Requirements:

- Age: 18-35 years (Youth Programme)
- Must reside in South Africa or a SADC country
- Should have a business idea or be in the start-up phase

Programme Duration: 6 months (full-time)
